

Heritage Biographical Sketch
2017

Minister Carolyn DuBose is a born again woman of God. She is an Associate Minister at Third New Hope Baptist Church in Detroit where she has served in several capacities.

Her first love is teaching and she can often be heard saying "teaching is what I do." She is a graduate of Ashland Theological Seminary and holds an earned Master of Divinity (M.Div.) degree from Ecumenical Theological Seminary.

Minister DuBose is retired and is an adjunct professor at the Heritage Center for Religious Studies.